Alyssa C. Brockert

Alyssa Brockert is well-known by her peers for the focused and individualized attention she gives every client, as well as her out-of-the-box approach to problem-solving. Alyssa has a diverse background and experience in a wide variety of legal matters, with a particular and specialized focus on estate planning and trusts and long-term care planning. Alyssa understands the strain placed on families when a loved one requires long-term care, and appreciates the role she gets to play in lessening the burden by helping these families navigate a complex administrative and legal process.

Alyssa also represents clients in property and business and transactional matters, including residential and commercial real estate transactions, civil forfeiture actions, and partition actions. In all matters Alyssa is dedicated to providing high-quality, customized representation and values the opportunity to make the legal process as stress-free and comfortable as possible for her clients.

PERSONAL

Alyssa is a life-long Kansan, and therefore loves all things Royal, Chief, Sporting or Jayhawk. She has also recently been introduced to English Premier League soccer. Suffice it to say, the television is rarely tuned to anything but sports at her house. Alyssa also enjoys jogging around her Olathe neighborhood and spending time with her family, including her six nieces and nephews. You may also find her taking in a show at the Lyric Opera of Kansas City, where she is a season-ticket holder.

Three words peers use to describe Alyssa: Kind, Passionate, Thoughtful
