Timothy A. Emerson

Tim Emerson's background is about as multi-faceted as it gets. After serving in the United States Marine Corps, Tim began his nearly 20 year legal career representing plaintiffs and claimants. He went on to counsel individuals and companies, both in private practice and as in-house counsel for one of the country's largest insurance companies. Today, the Kansas Worker's Compensation Fund is among Tim's many valued clients. Tim's diverse experience gives him the unique ability to be a problem-solver while zealously protecting his clients from economic harm.

CIVIC ACTIVITIES/COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Tim served for over a decade on the Board of Directors for Rainbows United, Inc., an organization devoted to helping children with special needs. He volunteers for “Bugles Across America,” a veteran founded, non-profit organization which provides the live sounding of “Taps” at military funerals. Deeply involved with Church, Tim often engages there in both service and recreational activities with his wife and their four children.

PERSONAL

“What I learned in the Marine Corps can be applied to life in general—the key to success in any fight is effective communication.”

Three words peers use to describe Timothy: Knowledgeable, Pragmatic, Loyal
