OUR APPROACH

"Wallace Saunders' philosophy is more 'how can we best satisfy the customer?' and less 'how much money will we make?' They do what's right for me."

At Wallace Saunders we bring intelligence, integrity and hard work to every case and client. Midwestern values run deep here and that's good news for you, because you know exactly what you're getting with us. It's a no-nonsense, collaborative approach based on more than 50 years of defending and protecting clients. We move quickly and work proactively to meet your legal needs. Our firm's structure creates an environment that enables solid partnerships. Here, you get the right expertise for your current legal needs. The result is efficient evaluations of both simple and complex legal issues and the successful resolution you deserve.

BROAD PERSPECTIVE

“Wallace Saunders knows my business better than most of my employees. Their legal knowledge is invaluable to me.”

We bring you a broad perspective – one not often found in other firms. Blending industry-focused legal knowledge with partners experienced in general law and litigation, we cover your legal needs from A to Z. We deliver enhanced value because we put a dedicated team on your business. Each member of your team is up-to-date on your industry and qualified to handle any issues that arise. In the end, you get your questions and concerns addressed quickly while avoiding the typical long chain of delegation and review that can run budgets unnecessarily high.
