ATTORNEYS AT LAW

PRACTICE AREA

Accounting

As with all types of professional liability clients, we work closely with accountants to identify and manage risks before a claim occurs. If a claim or lawsuit does arise, rest assured our focus will be on defending your interests.

Our team handles a wide range of litigation involving accounting malpractice issues, and zealously represents accountants before professional licensing boards, or within the courts. We can provide representation for responding to subpoenas or informal discovery requests for accounting records, often including consultation on issues of client confidentiality.

We're also skilled in evaluating compliance with accounting procedures under the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) and Generally Accepted Auditing Standards (GAAS), as well as the legal implications of engagement letters, work papers, audit reports, notes and recommendations.
